

21-22 APUSH Summer Assignment

Students, I hope this information finds you well. I am excited that each of you plans to take this course in the upcoming school year. You will have some work to do that will prepare you for the class upcoming. This will start our year at the right pace to accomplish all the necessary things required to have you pass the APUSH exam next May. Your work will be posted in Google Classroom. The work will begin on June 21, and be due every 2 weeks until school starts. You will need to order a book for the work. I will post all the requirements below. I am very excited for this upcoming year, and hope you all have a great summer.
