- Dresses may be strapless or include spaghetti straps.
- Dresses may not be cut below the bust line. The bust line continues around your sides directly under the armpit. With arms by your side, if flesh touches flesh below the bust line, the dress is inappropriate.
- Dresses may be backless as long as they are not cut below the naval. The small of your back should not be exposed.
- Midriffs will not be exposed. This includes both the front and side of the torso. With arms by your side, if flesh touches flesh in the midriff section, the dress is inappropriate.
- Dresses may not have a slit higher than mid-thigh. Dress length must be at least mid-thigh measuring shortest non-shear part. This is considered finger-tip length.
- Dresses with see-through fabric in the midriff or below the bust line are not acceptable. Undergarments should not be visible.
- Dresses that are overly tight are not acceptable.

If you have questions or need help, please ask. You may send pictures of attire to Jennifer Bradley or Brooke Smith.
